

What if I don't know anyone?

Some of us have made amazing new friendships because of handbell camp. You will make friends quickly and you'll have a blast!

Can I choose my room-mate?

Yes. See the registration form for more information about sharing rooms.

Can I bring a friend?

Of course! Bring one or more friends.
Bring your whole choir!

Who are the directors?

Directors include Linda Ashley,
Janet Carter, Staci Cunningham,
Lauran Delancy, Kathy Ford, Gail Welk.

Who else helps?

Chuck Ford directs the instrumental ensemble
and is our camp Registrar.

For more about Handbell Camp costs, printable registration forms, pictures and lots of other information, please visit our website at www.handbellcamp.org

Handbell Camp is organized by a Board of Directors. For specific questions please email board members Kathy Ford, at kathyjdf@aol.com or Janet Carter, at jmcartermusic@yahoo.com

Intergenerational Handbell Camp

July 8-12 2018

Massed bell choir

Individual bell choirs

Fun classes & free time

Ringin' skills classes

Brass/Wind Ensemble

Youth and Adults

Fellowship, Food, Fun

Beautiful Heartland Center

Parkville, MO

www.handbellcamp.org

Handbell Camp is...

- * For adults and teens going into 7th grade and above; about 1/4 to 1/3rd teens.
- * For anyone who wants to ring more! Helpful for beginners and challenging for experienced ringers and directors.
- * Ability level ringing choirs and a massed ringing choir. Challenging and fun!
- * Morning devotions and ringing choirs; afternoon classes and activities; optional small ensemble; plus evening activities such as Christmas in July, a talent show and our final concert.
- * Experienced directors, Handbell Camp Store, no music to learn before camp and no required music purchases.
- * Cost includes great accommodations and all meals and snacks. Some optional activities (horse riding), cost a little more.

"Camp gives me the challenge I don't get in my church choir, I wouldn't miss it!"

"Excellent experience, great challenge, totally worth the money and the time!"

"The directors took the time to talk to me individually when I needed help this experience will make me be a better director and ringer"

"It didn't matter that I knew nothing and had never picked up a bell before.... I learned!"

See handbellcamp.org to apply for the afternoon select small ensembles

How do I sign up?

All registration materials can be found on our website, handbellcamp.org Print out the forms and mail them to the address listed.

What if I'm not very good?

We divide ringers into ability level groups and our experienced directors are always ready to teach you and help you with any problem.

Is there any financial help?

We have scholarships for new campers and price breaks if you register early.

